

MAKAPALA BY THE SEA.

XXIII.—HEAT AND LIFE.

By ANNE M. PRESCOTT.

(Conclusion.)

"For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment. If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?"

But wilt thou know, O, vanities, that faith without works is dead?

And how to come up to date. We have always had a liking for the circus and "Price and Burns" is no exception.

Last Sunday, "outside" they gave the Rev. Byrd the use of their tent in which to hold service for the natives and the e were a hundred and more present. One of the company also kindly assisted with corsets. Tonight (July 15) there is to be a service held in the schoolroom (St. Paul's), Makapala, more especially for the heathen, as on Wednesdays of every month.

On Friday morning St. Paul's school will start off early for a tramp and a picnic. "Oh, would I were a boy again!" How little Shakespear has to say of manhood, or youth.

"And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof."

The thermometer may stand about the very same in mid-winter or in mid-summer in these islands; but, to a careful observer, there is a marked difference, many days. There is a difference too in the vegetable life all round.

The heat is more sure of itself, so to speak; and all the winged insects, of larger mold, have come into sudden restlessness and ceaseless whirr; hum and buzz of their little life. It's a merry time with them. They have the field now and are racing and chasing against time, some of them fairly bump into my face as I walk the veranda. I believe they would laugh for very joy of the strong sunlight, if they could. As it is, yesterday they gave a Pontifical High Mass, I am perfectly sure, to their creator.

"Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord," Amen.

Later. The Rev. Byrd has his posters (decorating (salt - water colors) the district today, that there will be service at "St. Augustine's" next Sunday afternoon for the Hawaiians.

We are just home from the school picnic and never a finer day blew out of the sky.

We had invested largely in a pine-apple plantation "outside," but finally some of the larger pupils looked us straight in the eye, quietly but with a defiant air, and positively declined to touch another slice. The little ones, however, were rather more amiable, and seemed to reconsider the invitation and thought they could manage a little more "if day tood up." As we held ourselves responsible for their safe conduct home we

Last night we all took a "wee bit siller" in our palm and off for the "show" like good and happy children. The boy-rider is a Jeju; and we were sad that the house was not broken from sod to ceiling. We doubt if those athletes can be beat. And there were other clever doings. The singing was too short. The farce was good and made us laugh as a good farce ought or what is the good? But, the last time we went to Barnum's there was a Gypsy fortune-teller and giants and a few other trifles that we rather liked but these people seem to have left them behind. I suppose giants eat up a good deal.

Madame Pele is returned from her late prospecting tour down stairs and is now offering a house-warming to all the world. Tall fires are no trouble for her fuel is free.
